IMMIGRATION WORK.

ROBERT McKernan returned from a trip to Ontario on Thursday's train. He spent a considerable time in immigration work while absent, chiefly in the Magnetawan district of Parry Sound and in Carlton county in the vicinity of Ottawa. He also visited Stratford, London and vicinity. Edmonton seems to be well spoken of wherever he went. In the Parry Sound district he found the people generally very favorably impressed; at the same time interested parties were making a business of circulating damaging statements regarding this district, with a view of hindering people from leaving. Mr. McKernan had the good luck to meet one of these gentlemen named Scott, who visited Edmonton last summer and at first reported very favorably on the country, but was now in the employ of the Ontario government assisting at lectures on the dairy industry and was running down Edmonton for the purpose of denouncing Parry Sound. This man had been spreading and disseminating falsehoods, which Mr. McKernan happened to have the evidence in hand to disprove. There will be a considerable movement from Parry Sound during the coming summer, but no large colony is likely to be formed, as the same inducements as were offered last year are not being repeated. If they were Mr. McKernan is confident that a much larger colony could be brought out. Mr. McKernan also has assurance from a large number of farmers in Carlton county that they intend visiting Edmonton after sending in over at home for the purpose of looking up locations.

A. C. Hutchings, English born, returned on Thursday's train from an extended tour in the western provinces, accompanied by his father, Mr. Hutchings, of Cumberland county, Ontario, and held several meetings there in the interest of immigration to the Northwest. He found the farmers extremely interested, although very slightly prejudiced with the facts, but the latter people are thoroughly opposed. However, he is assured of a number of land prospects from that country visiting Edmonton shortly on the strength of representations made by him. Mr. Hutchings also held a number of meetings in the County of Leeds, Ont., where he formerly resided, and where he found a very strong interest being taken in immigration to the Northwest. A number of people from that county, whom he met, or with whom he was acquainted, have already started for the west, and many more will follow as soon as sailing is over. Mr. Hutchings says that in speaking of the Northwest he always under rather than over stated the case, and found that what he did say had all the more effect. Great harm has been done by the extravagant statements made by some even paid agents; for when people find that one statement made by an agent is untrue they naturally discredit all that he has told them and have little faith in the country which he represents. Mr. Hutchings heard of agents of the United States working in several parts of Ontario, but did not happen to meet any of them. The weight of public sentiment seems to be in favor of the Northwest, but still there are a few going to Dakota. He met G. H. Ham, formerly of Winnipeg, but now travelling agent of the C. P. R., in the Maritime provinces and received valuable assistance from him.

GOODFISH LAKE.
Trains start today for seed grain for the Indians of this place, and Whitefish Lake.
Mr. J. G. Oliver started yesterday to Battleford having finished the great mill for the Indians of this place. It is in good running order and has been grinding for some time past. It does good work, and the Indians are now eating their own flour, and seemed satisfied. Many of them have a good quantity of grain, but not a very good sample. Their wheat has a mixture of barley and one or two other kinds of wheat, and does not ripen early.
Mr. Ross Indian agent is now in Edmonton purchasing some wheat for them that they may have good seed in the spring. The Ladoga wheat seems to get along very well here and ripens early.
All the Indian cattle are in good order and don't seem to have suffered any from the cold snap.
Mr. J. E. Ingram, farming instructor, of this place, intends leaving this spring and has already sent in his resignation. The Indians are very sorry to have to lose him. Well they might. Mr. Ingram has been a long time among them and it will be hard to find another so suited to fill the position he occupied.
